

Dear Cayuga Lake Supporter:

This is such a great line-up we have to share.

Cayuga Lake Watershed Network is hosting a fabulous conference on Saturday, Nov 3 from 9:30 AM - 1:00 PM at the First Unitarian Society of Ithaca 2nd Floor Annex, 208 E. Buffalo Street, Ithaca.

CLEAN will be doing a brief presentation and will also be tabling. Come out and check out this POWERHOUSE OF WATER-ISSUES PRESENTATIONS.

See you Saturday!

~CLEAN

Please join us for the
Cayuga Lake
 Watershed Network's
 2018 Fall
 Community Conference

FREE AND OPEN TO T

Please attend this power
 water-issue presenta

Saturday, November 3
 9:30 AM—1:00 PM

First Unitarian Society of Ithaca
 2nd Floor Annex
 208 E. Buffalo Street, Ithaca

9:30 AM Gather, refreshments, settle in

9:45 AM Welcome and introductions

Hilary Lambert, CLWN Steward
 Director

Each autumn, the Network provides a free conference to the Ithaca area, focused on water issues. This year, there are so many water-related issues that we have invited numerous speakers to each presentation, supplemented by table and

9:50 AM—1:00pm with BREAK at 11:20am

Speakers & Topics

Roxy Johnston, City of Ithaca
"Harmful Algal Blooms & Planning for the Future"

Elizabeth Moran, Ecologic, LLC.
"The 'Plumbing' of the Lake's South End"

David Weinstein, Cornell University
"Freese Road: Protecting Fall Creek Valley & Historic, One-Lane Bridge"

John Burger, Tai Chi teacher, Environmental & Labor Activist
"Lead pollution in Salmon Creek, Ludlowville, Lansing"

Hilary Lambert, CLWN Steward
"A List of Concerns for Cayuga Lake & Call for Unified Work to Protect"

Steve Penningroth and Nathaniel Launer,
 Community Science Institute
"The 2018 Harmful Algal Blooms Monitoring Program on Cayuga Lake"

John Dennis, CLEAN (Cayuga Lake Environmental Action Now)
"Salt Impacts to Cayuga Lake"

Irene Weiser, Fossil Free Tompkins

RSV programs
 call (607) 255-1111
 Cayuga Lake Watershed Network
www.cayugawatershednetwork.org

Clean the Lake.
Protect the Lake.