Dear Cayuga Lake Supporter:

This is such a great line-up we have to share.

Cayuga Lake Watershed Network is hosting a fabulous conference on Saturday, Nov 3 from 9:30 AM - 1:00 PM at the First Unitarian Society of Ithaca 2nd Floor Annex, 208 E. Buffalo Street, Ithaca.

CLEAN will be doing a brief presentation and will also be tabling. Come out and check out this POWERHOUSE OF WATER-ISSUES PRESENTATIONS.

See you Saturday!
~CLEAN
Please join us for the
Cayuga Lake
Watershed Network’s
2018 Fall
Community Conference

Saturday, November 3
9:30 AM—1:00 PM
First Unitarian Society of Ithaca
2nd Floor Annex
208 E. Buffalo Street, Ithaca

Please attend this powerful water-issue presenta tion.

9:30 AM  Gather, refreshments, settle in
9:45 AM  Welcome and introductions
          Hilary Lambert, CLWN Steward
                    Director

Each autumn, the Network provides a free one-day conference to the Ithaca area, focused on water issues. This year, there are so many water-related issues that we have invited numerous speakers to each present their perspective, supplemented by table and roundtable discussions.

9:50 AM—1:00pm with BREAK at 11:20am

Speakers & Topics

Roxy Johnston, City of Ithaca
“Harmful Algal Blooms & Planning for the Future”

Elizabeth Moran, Ecologic, LLC.
“The ‘Plumbing’ of the Lake’s South End”

David Weinstein, Cornell University
“Freese Road: Protecting Fall Creek Valley & Historic, One-Lane Bridg

John Burger, Tai Chi teacher, Environmental & Labor Activist
“Lead pollution in Salmon Creek, Ludlowville, Lansing”

Hilary Lambert, CLWN Steward
“A List of Concerns for Cayuga Lake & Call for Unified Work to Prote

Steve Penningroth and Nathaniel Launer,
Community Science Institute
“The 2018 Harmful Algal Blooms Monitoring Program on Cay

John Dennis, CLEAN (Cayuga Lake Environmental Action Now)
“Salt Impacts to Cayuga Lake”

Irene Weiser, Fossil Free Tompkins

RSV programs:
call (607) 273-2500
www.cayugawatershed.org
Clean the Lake. Protect the Lake.